Book Review
Title: James and the Giant Peach
Author: Roald Dahl
What the book is about: James and the Giant Peach is one of my favourite books of all time. This book is about a boy named James who is forced to live with his cruel aunts, who never let James have any fun. Whilst walking around in the garden, James meets creatures who quickly turn into friends. Later, James takes the giant peach (that his aunts are growing) and takes his mysterious friends on a quest to a better life.
Recommendations: If you are 9+ and you enjoy reading about adventure and wonder, I highly recommend this book. Even if you are not into adventure and wonder there is something for everyone so I think you should start reading James and the Giant Peach today.

Minestrone Soup
Ingredients:
- ¼ Fine diced onions
- ¼ Fine diced carrots
- ¼ Fine diced Celery
- ¼ Fine diced green beans
- 1 clove of chopped garlic
- Tbsp. Tomato paste
- ½ Diced tomatoes
- ½ cooked macaroni or similar sized pasta.
- ¼ diced bacon/ham
- Salt and pepper
- Tbsp. olive oil
- 4 cups chicken stock
- Tbsp. of Kidney Beans
Utensils:
- 2l pot
- Wooden spoon
- Knife
- Cutting board
Method:
1. Heat the oil in the pan then add all the vegetables, and the bacon. (Not tomatoes and kidney beans yet) Season with salt and pepper.
2. Add tomato paste and cook for 30 sec.
3. Add chicken stock.
4. Bring it to the boil and then turn down to simmer.
5. Add the beans and tomatoes in now.
6. Let it simmer for 20 minutes.
7. Taste, and season if needed.
8. Add cooked pasta and serve immediately.

That is all needed to make Minestrone Soup. Serve warm. Enjoy!
